SERVICE

DEPARTMENT

- 2019 - Chair, Committee for Law and Philosophy Minor, UAlbany.
- Steered the Law and Philosophy Minor from its inception in 2018.
 - The minor has grown every year. Fall 2018: 0 students; F2019: 64 students; F2020: 102 students; F2021: 131 students; F2022: 148 students
 - Developed and strengthened our department's relationship to Albany Law, organizing visits, talks, and symposia for our students.
 - Created and got approved the "Get a Taste of Law" option for the minor – students can take a course at Albany Law during their senior year and count it towards the minor.
- 2019-2022 Committee Member, Graduate Studies Committee
- In addition to standard duties, I helped the chair of the committee steer through various departmental votes and through the administration a comprehensive streamlining of our MA program.
- 2019-2022 Chair, Exams Committee
- Supervised the composition and carrying out of PhD Comprehensive Exams for three years and provided guidance to PhD students throughout the academic year, including the design of a new orientation session on the exam.

UNIVERSITY

- 2022- Department Senator, University Senate
- 2022- University Life Committee (ULC), Member.
- 2021- LLC (Living Learning Community), World of Law, Ethics, and Philosophy
- With my colleague Jason D'Cruz and at the request of Student Engagement, we've created the World of Law, Ethics, and Philosophy. The 1-credit hour seminar navigates basic philosophical questions about the law, introduces students to philosophy and to university life more generally, and exposes freshmen to the various pre-law paths at UAlbany. We also serve as mentors to these students throughout their college path.

PROFESSION

- 2021 Organizer of Workshop on Practical Reason (with David Owens, Hille Paakkunainen, Tamar Schapiro, and Michael Smith) Department of Philosophy, University at Albany
